Dear Mr. Nicholson:

Re: Docket #96-12900

We have attempted to contact you in order to discuss a complaint filed against you with the Department, but have been unable to do so.

➔ (305/5. Architect defined - Acts constituting practice) Section 5. Architect defined; Acts constituting practice. An architect is a person who is qualified by education, training, experience, and examination, and who is licensed under the laws of this State, to practice architecture.

The practice of architecture within the meaning and intent of this Act includes the offering or furnishing of professional services, such as consultation, environmental analysis, feasibility studies, programming, planning, aesthetic and structural design, construction documents consisting of drawings and specifications and other documents required in the construction process, administration of construction contracts, project representation, and construction management, in connection with the construction of any private or public building, building structure, building project, or addition to or alteration or restoration thereof.
